All events that involve money are voluntary. Other opportunities will be available for those who choose not to attend.

When founder William Rosenberg opened his first donut shop in Quincy, Massachusetts in 1948, it was originally named Open Kettle. Two years later, "Dunkin' Donuts" was officially born. Please bring between $6.00 - $8.00 for this trip.

Roses Discount Store offers great, quality items at low prices, every day! Roses - The smart way to shop. Please bring between $5.00 - $15.00 for this trip.

January Fun

Polar Putt-Putt - Take your stab and polar putt-putt, this 9-hole course is fun for everyone. This trip will cost $3.00.

Bocce Club - Take a trip to Quirk Cultural Center every Wednesday to participate in this indoor activity that provides an opportunity to make friends and develop bocce game skills.

Thrifting Club - We will be taking a trip across the street to The Salvation Army to see what goodies we can find. If you are interested in this club, please bring at least $10.00 for this trip.

Healthy Lifestyle Challenge - CCNEO will be kicking off the New Year with some fun healthy lifestyle challenges. We encourage everyone to participate in this fun activity.

Week 1 - We ease into this challenge with our Water Week! Pack a bottle of water in your lunch each day for 5 days to complete this challenge.

Week 2 - Challenge yourself this week by swapping out a few of your usual staples for some fruit or veggies.

Week 3 - Get yourself moving this week by participating in daily exercise classes. Try some yoga or get in a good stretch! Our weekly mall walking trip will count toward your exercise for this week!

Library Trips - We will be taking a trip to a different library every week to check out new items and return the old. Please bring your library card with you so you can check out items.

Reminder:
CCNEO will be closed Wednesday
January 1st. We will reopen
Thursday January 2nd.
